

review block 1 (lessons 1-9)

After the first nine chapters...

- I can introduce myself in Dutch.
- I can talk about my name, where I am from, how many languages I speak and what I do for a living in Dutch.
- I know some professions in Dutch.
- I can ask questions and answer them.
- I can talk about hobbies and leisure time.
- I can do grocery shopping in Dutch.
- I know fruits and vegetables in Dutch.
- I can talk about cooking, meals and dishes in Dutch.
- I can describe a house.
- I can ask the way and understand directions.
- I know how to tell time in Dutch.
- I can talk about going on holiday.
- I can fill in a form with personal information.
- I can talk about public transport and I know how to get an OV-chipkaart.
- I know how to plan my trip with public transport.
- I can talk about my family and friends.
- I can check into a hotel or at the Summer School and I can have a conversation at the reception.
- I can talk about bicycles in Dutch.
- I can rent a real Dutch bicycle.
- I can talk about a barbecue.
- I can have conversations about the past and about secrets.
- I can talk about my and other people's moods and feelings.

I have learned Dutch grammar:

#dutchgrammar-1

1: the article	I know... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know some verbs. • I know how to conjugate a verb. • I know the word order in a main sentence.
2: the noun
3: the personal pronoun
4: the verb
5: the word order
11: numbers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know some adverbs of degree, time and place. • I know what inversion in a main clause is. • I know 8 question words.
6: the adverb
7: inversion
8: question word	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know what is an adjective, how to use it and how to write it.
9: adjectives
10: adjectives (2)

12: plural nouns	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know the 3 most common plural forms in Dutch. • I know some prepositions for place, direction and time.
13: prepositions
14: the diminutive	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know where diminutives are used and the grammar rules of the diminutive in Dutch. • I know the ordinal numbers. • I know what personal pronoun I have to use when a person or a thing is an object in a sentence.
15: ordinal numbers
17: personal pronouns as object
18: possessive adjectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know when to use a possessive adjective and I know the word order when I use it. • I know the demonstrative pronouns in Dutch. • I can use some prepositions for location, time and relations.
19: the demonstrative pronoun
20: prepositions + position verbs
21: when (not) to use an article
22: welk, elk, ieder	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know when to use an article and when not to. • I know the words which, every, each in Dutch and how to use them. • I know the indefinite pronoun and the indefinite adverb.
23: indefinite pronouns/ adverbs
24: word order: time and place
25: negation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know more about word order in Dutch and what will happen with the word order if I stress something at the beginning of a sentence. • I can use negation in Dutch. • I know the degrees of comparison (regular and irregular). • I can ask questions with the question words: hoe + adverb and I can answer them.
26: question words (hoe)
27: comparative + superlative
28: modal verbs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can use modal verbs in Dutch and I know how to conjugate them. • I know when I have to use verb + infinitive.
29: modal verb: zullen
30: verbs + infinitive
46: present perfect	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can talk about the past by using the present perfect in Dutch. • I know the grammar rules about regular and irregular past participles.
47: present perfect (2)
48: present perfect (3)	