

review block 2 (lessons 10-18)

After the previous nine chapters...

- I can introduce myself in Dutch.
- I can talk about myself, my hobbies and relations.
- I can talk about studying.
- I can understand a text and graphics about international students in the Netherlands and I can talk about this topic.
- I can talk about birthdays and Dutch public holidays.
- I can talk about a visit to the doctor.
- I can talk about body parts.
- I can describe pain.
- I can understand a prescription for the pharmacy.
- I can talk about going out and to the restaurant.
- I can order food in a restaurant.
- I can go to a bar.
- I can read a typical Dutch menu.
- I can talk about the weather.
- I can understand the weather forecast.
- I can talk about the museum.
- I can buy tickets for a museum.
- I can talk about love in Dutch.
- I can talk about the bright side of love and about the opposite.
- I can break up with my Dutch boyfriend or girlfriend.
- I can say goodbye in Dutch and talk about it.
- I know how to keep in touch with my new friends.

I have learned Dutch grammar:

#dutchgrammar-1

- 31: separable verbs
- 33: reflexive verbs/ pronouns
- 35: imperative

I know...

- I know what a separable verb is and when and how to separate it and when not.
- I know what a reflexive verb and a reflexive pronoun are and I know where the reflexive pronoun is placed in a sentence.
- I know what the imperative is.

- 36: position verbs + te + infinitive

- 37: verbs + te + infinitive

- 41: verbs + om + te + infinitive

- 42: aan het + infinitive

- I know how and when to use verbs + te + infinitive.
- I know how and when to use verbs + om + te + infinitive.
- I know how and when to use aan het + infinitive.

- 38: verbs + prepositions
- 43: questions + prepositions

- I know how and when to use the combination of a verb + preposition.
- I know how to make question words with the verb-preposition combinations.

- 49: past tense
- 50: past tense (2)

- I can use the past tense in Dutch.
- I know how to form the regular past tense.
- I know some irregular verbs in the past tense.

#dutchgrammar-2

- 22: past tense vs present perfect
- 1: the future
- 15: indirect object

- I know when to use past tense or present perfect.
- I know 3 ways to talk about an activity in the future.
- I know what an indirect object is.

- 6: conjunctions
- 7: subclause + conjunction: reason
- 8: conjunctions: consequence
- 9: conjunctions: contrast
- 10: conjunctions: time
- 11: conjunctions: condition

- I know the word order in the main clause and in the subclause.
- I know different conjunctions that indicate reason, cause, consequence, contrast, time and condition.

- 23: irregular verbs
- 24: past participle [-en]
- 25: past participle: no [ge-]

- I know irregular verbs in the past tense and present perfect.
- I know that hebben, zijn and the modal verbs are irregular and I know their conjugation.
- I know when there is no [ge-] at the beginning of a past participle.

- 12: conjunctions: of, dat
- 13: question words
- 14: starting with a subclause

- I know how and when to use the conjunctions dat and of followed by a subclause.
- I know how and when to use question words as conjugations.
- I can start the sentence with a subclause.

- 26: hebben or zijn (1)
- 27: hebben or zijn (2)

- I know when to use hebben or zijn in the present perfect.
- I know that we can use hebben for an activity and zijn for a direction or destination.