

DE KENNISMAKING

LEERDOELEN / learning objectives:

- I can introduce myself in Dutch.
- I can talk about myself, my hobbies and relationships.
- I know what a separable verb is and when and how to separate it and when not to.
- I know what a reflexive verb and a reflexive pronoun are. I know where the reflexive pronoun is placed in a sentence.
- I know what the imperative is.
- I know the difference between the Netherlands and Holland.
- I know the pronunciation of [g] and [ch].

woordenlijst

opstaan	to get up
opendoen	to open
aankomen	to arrive
meenemen	to bring with you uitgaan	to go out
afspreken	to make an appointment afwassen	to do the dishes uitrusten	to relax
nakijken	to check
invullen	to fill in de politie	the police
zich vergissen	to make a mistake zelden	rarely
sporadisch	sporadically soms	sometimes
regelmatig	regularly meestal	usually
zich herinneren	to remember zich schamen	to be ashamed zich vervelen	to be bored verschrikkelijk	terrible zich haasten	to hurry
zich verslikken	to choke zich verspreken	to say something you're not supposed to say stoppen	to stop
opletten	to pay attention opruimen	to clean up
het uitroepteken	the exclamation mark praten	to talk
doorlopen	to move along noteren	to write down
roepen	to call (shout)
het bord	the plate
Maak je huiswerk!	Do your homework!
zichzelf	himself/herself beantwoorden	to answer

de boer	the farmer
het boerenmeisje	the farm girl het bedrijf	the company de collega	the colleague de punt	the dot
uitdelen	to hand out
afkijken	to crib
in plaats van	instead of uitleggen	to explain

het verschil tussen	the difference between aanzetten	to turn on huiswerk	to give homework opgeven	homework
de video	the video